Subject: Microsoft Settlement

Sirs,

As a user of Microsoft products (both at home and at work) I feel that the results of the settlement does not go far enough in either:

- a) penalising Microsoft for the previous monopolistic tactics - which have seriously (to my mind) reduced the innovation in the desktop and browser market
- b) limiting the monopolistic tendencies of microsoft in the future

It is sad to see a toothless anti-trust case which seemed to start with the right intentions but, at its finish, has become a farce and a whitewash.

Regards,

Michael Angel.
